

Etehad Group of Companies currently consists of four companies actively engaged in importing various products and goods related to the food industry.

Over the past years, this group has successfully met a significant portion of Iran's demand for food products.

About Etehad Group

Etehad Group of Companies has imported substantial quantities of meat from various countries, totaling over 3,500 tons of different frozen meats. These include frozen buffalo meat from India, frozen beef from Brazil, and frozen mutton from Mongolia.

Over the years, Etehad Group has played a crucial role in ensuring food security and supporting livelihoods during economic challenges by importing several thousand tons of frozen meat from Brazil, India, Mongolia, Russia, Georgia, Armenia, and Australia.

Imported Meat Products:

- 1. Beef from  Brazil (FRESH FROZEN BONELESS BEEF MEAT):
Supplied in three cuts: chuck, shoulder clod, and neck.
- 2. Buffalo Meat from  India (FROZEN BONELESS BUFFALO MEAT):
Supplied in eight cuts: round, rump, topside, silverside, chuck, shoulder clod, tenderloin, and striploin.
- 3. Mutton from  Mongolia (FRESH FROZEN OVINE MEAT):
Supplied in five cuts: leg, foreshank, neck, loin, and flank.

Currently, the company operates with a workforce of over 250 employees, maintaining its commitment to delivering high-quality food products to the Iranian market.